

Kevin Alexander Echeverry. Fine Arts artist graduated from the Jorge Tadeo Lozano University (2017) and Architecture Student at the same. He had complementary studies related to Art, Heritage and conservation, at the Andes University in Bogota (2017). Currently, his professional focus is related to the research about the ideas of territory, identity, city history and building heritage. He has published articles about these topics sharing the results of his research about cities like Bogotá, Manizales, Santiago de Cali y Tunja. On the other hand, he has exhibited his artwork in cities like Tokyo, there he gave a talk about Latin-American Art and the case of Colombia. Member EdAkids, international series of the books for children (Italy) and Executive Coordinator “Reconnecting of your culture”, international project promoted by EdA Esempli di Architettura (Italy).

APSAC Finalist Interview - Kevin Alexander Echeverry Bucurú

<https://asgardia.space/en/news/APSAC-Finalist-Interview-Kevin-Alexander-Echeverry-Bucur%C3%BA>